NOTES

25X1

Congo (Brazzaville) - Congo (Kinshasa): The Kinshasa Embassy in Brazzaville was sacked yesterday by local youths angered at the revocation of the amnesty under which former rebel leader Mulele was returned to Kinshasa. The sacking strengthens the possibility that the Mulele affair will precipitate a sharp deterioration in relations between the two Congos. Brazzaville officials, apparently still uninformed of Mulele's reported assassination, have not yet taken a public position on the revocation, although they have issued a strongly worded denial that they have been involved in double-dealing.
